

EXPERIENCE SERVICE

“It was a life-changing experience to bless lives, lift the children and learn about myself and others. It sparked a fire within me that tells me to continue assisting in any way I can and return annually to recharge my soul.”

— WILL LOVE
2009, SACRED VALLEY

“We could have never imagined the outcome of this trip when we decided to give it to our children as their Christmas present. The trip gave back to us! Seeing our children interact with the Latin American children has changed our family forever.”

— RAY AND JULIE ULLRICH
2010, CUSCO

“Overall, this was the best trip of my life and I owe you a huge thank you for that!”

— IZABELLA GREULICH
2011, CAJAMARCA

The Condor represents the people of the South. The Incan “Chakana”* (outlining the condor) represents bridging heaven and earth. For thousands of years South American Holy Men have prophesied of a reunion between the long separated People of the Eagle and People of the Condor. Today, Eagle Condor uses the Chakana and Condor as our symbol as we bridge cultures.

FAMILY

WE ENCOURAGE EVERYONE to join hands with your global family.

OUR EXPEDITIONS: Community Development, Education and Health

ALL SERVICE EXPEDITIONS have numerous opportunities for one-on-one interaction and to learn from each culture and one from another. Traditional service expeditions work with communities, school and development projects. These expeditions are open to families, singles, and groups of all skill sets and interests. Youth expeditions are focused on providing teen-agers with a unique opportunity to foster their humanitarian spirit by giving of themselves and making a difference with their own two hands. Medical expeditions, in partnership with Innovasis, train local doctors in techniques for spine, cranial or maxiofacial procedures and perform surgeries with local practitioners. Dental expeditions provide necessary treatment for those who often go their whole lives without a toothbrush. Expeditions can also be tailored for companies and larger groups who would like to work in specific areas of need. Please contact us today to schedule the expedition of a lifetime!
